

Getting to Ft. Belvoir

Fort Belvoir is located south of Alexandria, Virginia. From I-95, the Fort Belvoir exit is 3.7 miles south of the Capital Beltway (Rt 495).

From Reagan National Airport

Travel south on Route 1/Richmond Highway through Alexandria to Fort Belvoir. There are many traffic lights, fast food places and gas stations. The business-district route is strictly a slow trip. An alternate route (15.3 miles) would be to take the scenic George Washington/Mt. Vernon Parkway (named Washington Street in town) south through Old Town Alexandria. From the airport's main terminal, follow the green highway signs toward Alexandria. Proceed along the Potomac River past Mt. Vernon, historic home of George Washington, until you get to the Route 1 intersection; turn left (south) on to Route 1. Follow Route 1 to Tulley Gate, about 1 mile.

From the Maryland Side of the Beltway (Prince George's County)

Take the Beltway (Route 495/95) across the Potomac River via the Woodrow Wilson Bridge and continue on 495/95 to the exit for I-95. Go south on I-95 toward Richmond. (See From I-95 Traveling South)

From Dulles Airport and/or Virginia Side of the Capital Beltway (Fairfax County)

Take the Dulles Access Road from Dulles Airport and exit on to the capital Beltway (Route 495). Go south toward Alexandria and Richmond. As you reach the lower part of the Beltway, exit south on to I-95 toward Richmond. (See From I-95 Traveling South)

From I-95 Traveling South

Take this heavily congested route south, take exit 166A (Newington/Fort Belvoir). From the ramp, travel south on Fairfax County Parkway for about 3 miles to Route 1/Richmond Highway. Turn left (north) on to Route 1 and go about .5 miles, where you will see the Tulley Gate on the right..

From Richmond – I-95 Traveling North

Take I-95 north to the Fort Belvoir/Mt. Vernon exit. You will now be on Route 1/Richmond Highway. Drive about 6 miles to the Tulley Gate on the right.

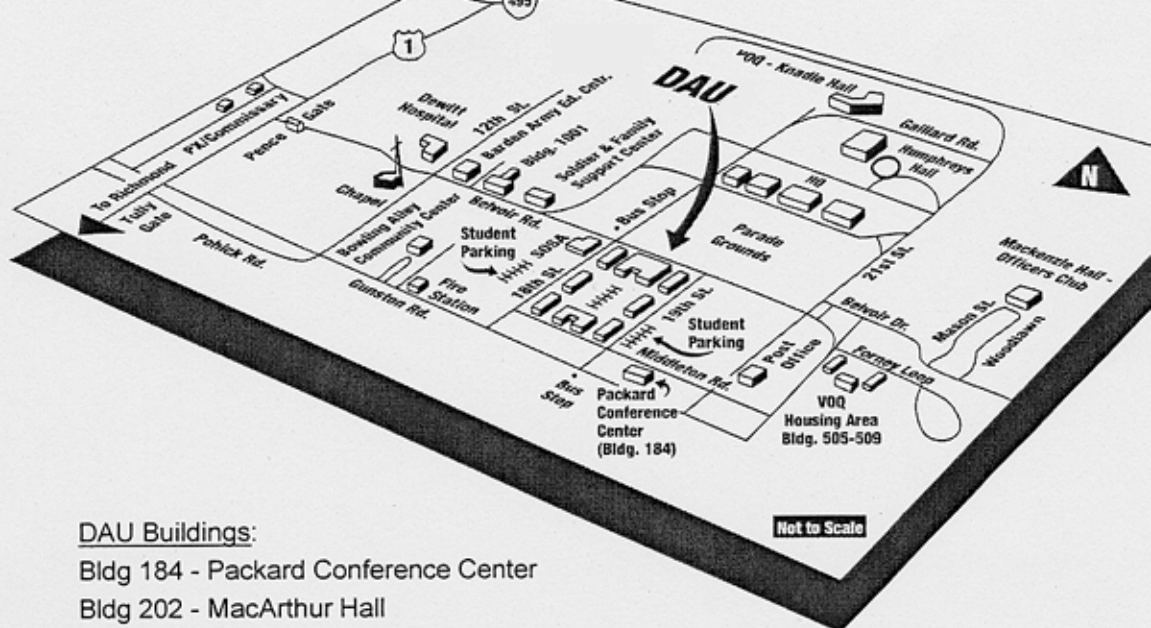

All visitors must enter Ft. Belvoir through Tulley Gate from US Route 1.

Once on Base

Once you reach Fort Belvoir, the DAU campus is easy to find. Due to increased security measures, all visitor traffic must enter through the Tulley Gate located at the intersection of Route 1 and Backlick Road to the West & Pohick Road to the East. It is just north of the Fairfax County Parkway. You will turn onto Pohick Road from Route 1 (there is a large sign indicating Tulley Gate). Follow Pohick Road to the guard station. If you have DoD stickers on your vehicle, you need only show a photo ID. If you do not have DoD stickers, you will have to stop and fill out some paperwork to get a temporary base pass (allow extra time for this). After leaving the guard station, follow Pohick Road (which becomes 12th Street). Turn right at the second light, on to Belvoir Road. The DAU Campus is between 18th & 19th Streets and Belvoir & Middleton Roads. The main building, 202, faces Belvoir Road and has four large columns and a semicircular driveway. It is opposite a large parade field. All buildings are numbered, If you get lost, call 1-800-845-7606.

NOTE: You can exit the base through any of the three gates, Pence, Tulley or Walker.

All registered attendees will receive emailed instruction prior to start of conference.
